

EFL TEACHER (2020)

Our Courses

Students who attend our courses participate in mixed-nationality English classes and a varied activity and excursion programme. We run a zigzag timetable in most of our centres, which means that there are usually morning and afternoon lessons. There is also the possibility of teaching on weekends (see specific centre programmes). Our daily activity programme covers a wide range of sporting and non-sporting activities. We also provide an extensive and enjoyable social programme in the evenings. The excursion programme allows the students to visit interesting places in the local area and also popular tourist destinations.

Job Description

EFL teachers report to the Academic Manager & Centre Manager

Main Duties & Responsibilities

- To teach English as a Foreign Language to classes allocated by the Centre Manager and Academic Manager.
- To complete Elac's online induction and training prior to arrival in the centre.
- To keep a full record of attendance and to notify the Academic Manager of any absenteeism immediately.
- To keep a full record of work completed during the course and to report to and discuss with the Academic Manager any issues arising from the teaching.
- To liaise with co-teachers when teaching swap classes in order to ensure continuity and balance of material taught.
- To agree to be observed by the Academic Manager, Academic Consultant, Centre Manager or Group Leader.
- To attend two hours of teacher development during the contract period.
- To prepare students as appropriate for the Trinity Examinations in Spoken English (if required).
- To complete a summary report of progress and achievement for each student in their class before leaving.
- To assist in the administration and marking of the initial student assessment tests.
- To liaise with support staff and group leaders on student welfare.
- To organise and supervise the students in recreational activities (based on specific contract details).
- To accompany, supervise and guide students on our excursion programme (based on specific contract details).

General

- To undertake any reasonable duties as and when required.
- To adhere to all Elac Study Vacations policies & procedures and to implement Elac's Safeguarding policy at all times.

Working Hours

EFL teachers are required to do 27 contact teaching hours and 3 hours assisting with student testing and orientation per week (these may not be spread evenly over the contract period). Residential Teachers also supervise on a combination of excursions, activities and duties amounting to 4 sessions per week (see below). Where a need for additional teaching arises, we may ask for teachers to substitute lessons for either activity sessions or student testing and orientation hours (3hrs teaching/testing = 1 Activity

EFL TEACHER

Session). In this case there is no additional pay. In the case of substituting activity sessions for teaching the difference in the pay between teaching and activity work (£5.00 per hour extra) will be paid.

The contract includes 4 hours of planning time per week for all teachers & a minimum of one full day off per a week. Working on weekends is sometimes required & all academic staff must complete two hours of professional development during the contract. Applicants can ask to be included in a list of staff wanting to maximise their earnings by working additional hours (48 hour week work opt-out must be signed). Attendance at a Staff Training day (includes General and Academic Induction) at the centre (prior to student arrival) is required as part of this contract.
